Sherri Burr, Edmund Kitch, Harvey Perlman : Modern Intellectual Property and Unfair Competition Law (University Casebook Series) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Modern Intellectual Property and Unfair Competition Law (University Casebook Series):

Modern Intellectual Property Law, 6th Edition, is a cutting edge casebook that tackles major issues from the rise of social media and the computer industry to the changing nature of unfair competition law. It features cases involving the giants of our age such as Apple, Amazon.com, Microsoft, Facebook, Google, LinkedIn, and YouTube. It also covers the major changes in the patent law with the American Invents Act and unique trademark cases such as those involving Christian Louboutin shoes. In addition to fascinating cases and interesting statutes, Modern Intellectual Property Law, 6th Edition provides interviews with intellectual property creators to illustrate major issues.
