Dr. Brad McRae csp : Negotiating With Your Ex: Divorce Is Only the Beginning (Reference Series) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Negotiating With Your Ex: Divorce Is Only the Beginning (Reference Series):

Your divorce usually isn't the end of your dealings with your former spouse. Personal, financial and legal issues may linger for many years after the divorce is granted. Brad McRae provides a system to minimize conflict and maximize impact in your dealings with your former partner to create a win-win situation.

From the Back Cover A divorce is a new beginning in your relationship with your now-ex-spouse. It brings a new series of challenges and requires a new set of skills. Personal, financial and legal issues may linger for years. Parenting challenges will certainly last a lifetime. How do you minimize conflict and maximize effectiveness in this new beginning? In this book, a respected authority on conflict resolution and negotiation provides a definitive guide on creating a win-win situation with your former partner. Brad McRae outlines how to avoid the pitfalls that can beset those who think a divorce is an end and not simply a chapter in the relationship.
