Mr. Mayo's book will be the vade mecum for New Hampshire trust laws for years to come.

New Hampshire's modern trust laws promote innovative trust design and efficient trust administration. Those laws have made New Hampshire one of the most attractive jurisdictions in which to create and administer trusts. Written by a trust attorney involved in developing those laws, New Hampshire Trust Laws is a practical reference that combines the statutes with commentary and historical background.

"More than a compilation of state trust statutes, New Hampshire Trust Laws provides historical context, insightful commentary, and a clear and readable discussion of New Hampshire's evolving fiduciary landscape. The book is an excellent tool for any practitioner who performs trust planning with New Hampshire trusts."--Joseph P. Toce, Jr., Managing Director, Andersen Tax
"This thoroughly researched, comprehensive reference tool is an invaluable resource for anyone working with New Hampshire trusts."--David Scott Sloan, Chair, National Estate Planning Practice, Holland Knight
"With New Hampshire leading the pack with innovative modern trust laws, including the first and only dedicated trust court, Mr. Mayo's book is a must read for any trust professional who is reviewing the best options for his or her client. There are always a few top jurisdictions to consider, but for a jurisdiction that is a recognized leader in protecting a settlor's legacy from beneficiary or third party attack to offering the latest cutting-edge planning options for an advisor to offer to his clients, New Hampshire should be the first port of call. Mr. Mayo has provided an invaluable resource to the professional community and it should be on every advisor's shelf."--Todd M. Beutler, International Partner, BMT International (former Co-Head, Global Private Client Group, DLA Piper)
"Whereas Todd has been instrumental in the writing of our current trust statutes, it is only fitting that he writes the book on such. I can think of no better person to write on the advantages that New Hampshire brings to those looking to establish or manage a family's trust."--Scott T. Baker, President of Perspecta Trust and Chair of the New Hampshire Trust Council
