J.F. Burrows : News Media Law in New Zealand before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised News Media Law in New Zealand:

The laws affecting the media are scattered throughout many areas of the law. This book provides a survey of all parts of the law which are of relevance to the media, such as defamation, copyright, court reporting, contempt of court, breach of confidence, laws on openness of information and restraints on obtaining information, and the rules for reporting on Parliamentary meetings. This third edition has been updated to include many new cases in defamation, and important new statutes.
