Sara Sampson, Katherine L. Hall, Carolyn Broering-Jacobs : Ohio Legal Research, Second Edition (Carloina Academic Press Legal Research) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Ohio Legal Research, Second Edition (Carloina Academic Press Legal Research):

Written for a wide audience, including law students and legal practitioners, Ohio Legal Research offers a concise introduction to researching Ohio law. This book provides an overview of the legal research process in general coupled with a specific discussion of Ohio and federal material. Topics include researching Ohio and federal case law, statutory law, administrative law, local law, and legislative history in addition to finding secondary sources, such as practice treatises and form books. Ohio Legal Research covers both print and electronic sources, including references to freely available sources. This book is part of the Legal Research Series, edited by Suzanne E. Rowe, Director of Legal Research and Writing, University of Oregon School of Law.

About the Author Sara Sampson is the Deputy Director of the Law Library at the University of North Carolina School of Law. Katherine Hall is administrative director of the library at the University of Iowa School of Law. Carolyn Broering-Jacobs is a Professor and the Director of the Legal Writing Program at Cleveland State University's Cleveland-Marshall College of Law.
