From Tottel Publishing : Older Client Law Service before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Older Client Law Service:

Older Client Law Service covers a wide range of legal subjects particularly relevant to older people, both those of retirement age and in their declining years. The service takes in relationships with family and carers, occupations, housing, community care, health care, residential care, funding, and financial affairs and management, testamentary provision and death, all from the perspective of the older person. It also examines the implications of the Care Standards Act 2000, the Human Rights Act 1998, the Trustee Delegation Act 1998, and the Datas Protection Act 1998. Written by an expert team of contributors, and endorsed by Age Concern, it will answer your common practical problems and clearly demonstrates how to challenge the authorities. One looseleaf volume, subscribers receive their first year's updating issues as part of the purchase price (two to three service issues per year). Subscribers are then charged annually for subsequent updating issues.
