The City Law School : Opinion Writing 2009-2010 (Bar Manuals) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Opinion Writing 2009-2010 (Bar Manuals):

Opinion Writing offers trainee barristers a thorough grounding in the essential skill of writing opinions and providing practical advice on matters such as evidence and procedure. Adopting a systematic approach to opinion writing, the manual first provides guidance on analyzing the issues of a case, through to deciding what advice should be given, how the opinion should be structured, before finally moving onto writing the opinion to a high professional standard.

The fundamental qualities of effective writing - clarity, accuracy, and conciseness - are clearly identified and explained ensuring that the manual supports the reader in developing the unrivalled level of proficiency in writing required of all practising barristers

About the Author This manual is edited by Allison Wolfgarten, Barrister, Senior Lecturer, The City Law School
