Sarah Seymour-Winfield : Pandemic of Opportunism before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Pandemic of Opportunism:

Pandemic of Opportunism is recommended for all those who daily deal with the powerful emotions and psychological disruption which result from medical error - for doctors and nurses themselves, for attorneys, psychologists, grief counselors, Hospice professionals, clergy of all faiths, as well as for loved ones of patients and for all families who will most likely face in their own futures the choice to extend toward the medical profession itself the same compassion which that profession mercifully extends toward them.
