Dan Zismer : Physician Compensation Arrangements: Management Legal Trends before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Physician Compensation Arrangements: Management Legal Trends:

Designing and implementing physician compensation and incentive system's for managed care is growing in importance. Proper alignment of physician compensation and incentives is key to achieving the cost of care goals required under managed care arrangements. This manual provides attorneys, physician group managers, accountants, PHO and MSO administrators, health care consultants, managed care financial officers, hospital physician relations managers and CFOs with the guidance they need to properly design and implement physician compensation and incentive systems that work.
