Brian Gallagher : Powers of Attorney Act before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Powers of Attorney Act:

This book clarifies both the substance and implications of the Act to minimise potentially damaging misconceptions. This second edition is an updated Annotation of the Act, and includes new Rules of the Superior Courts on the Registration of Enduring Powers of Attorney, along with reference to any judicial decisions on the Act since its enactment. It also includes statistics on the number of applications for Registration of Enduring Powers, and on the numbers registered, as well as information on commonly made mistakes in relation to the registration of enduring powers.
