Cover "A Handbook That Digs Into The Hidden Challenges Of Representing Yourself In Court." About the Author This handbook gives the reader inside information on how the courts can work against a person to intentionally deny justice and explains what to look for if you are in this situation or if you plan to soon challenge unconstitutional laws or the government's unlawful actions. Chase Carmen Hunter, the author, is a nation-wide insurance agent who has been victimized by a Florida insurance competitor who used fraudulently-obtained Florida court documents and presented them to others outside of Florida to demand that they give him up to $10,000,000 to pay this fraudulent judgment. When the author discovered how these fraudulent documents were obtained; she used the evidence and facts to show the courts that she was entitled to relief from the fraudulent judgment. And in retaliation, judges, lawyers, court clerks, and public officials in multiple states launched a nation-wide campaign against the author to silence her...to keep the public from knowing that public officials, in whom much is entrusted, regularly conspire to create fraudulent documents, negligently and intentionally, to create fraudulent court documents and fraudulent court judgments against unsuspecting people. What happened and still is happening to this author is shocking and shows that these same judges, lawyers, court clerks, and public officials conspired and are conspiring to create more fraudulent documents to unlawfully arrest the author, empty her bank accounts, freeze her bank accounts, steal real estate from her, cut the locks off her house to enter to kidnap her, and much more.
