Ms Sarah Jane Woodall : Professional Ethics: Bar Professional Training Course (Sugarloaf Revision Guides) (Volume 1) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Professional Ethics: Bar Professional Training Course (Sugarloaf Revision Guides) (Volume 1):

In 2016-17, Professional Ethics is an important and challenging part of the Bar professional training course. In recent years, with some BPTC providers, over 50% of candidates have had to resit. This book seeks to avoid long winded narrative and instead distils the syllabus into bullet points that are easy to read and easy to remember. The aim is to help students achieve a strong understanding, early. This book is based on the structure of the BPTC syllabus. It is definitely not to be read instead of the latest BSB Handbook. Its aims are to make the fascinating and important area of Professional Ethics more fun to study from the outset, and to significantly help with revision.

About the Author SJ Woodall is a Visiting Professor at the Dickson Poon School of Law at Kings College London. After joining the British Civil Service via its fast stream, SJ Woodall worked as a Senior Civil Servant in the British Government in Westminster. Specialising in tax, she held many roles including Officer in Charge of Criminal Prosecution and Head of Anti-Avoidance Investigation for HMRC. After winning Middle Temples Harmsworth Scholarship she undertook BPTC to move in to private practice at Temple Tax Chambers.
