United Nations : Progress for Children: A Report Card on Child Protection before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Progress for Children: A Report Card on Child Protection:

Undernutrition contributes to the deaths of about 5.6 million children under five in the developing world each year. It can lead to poor school performance and dropout, it threatens girls' future ability to bear healthy children and it perpetuates a generational cycle of poverty. This volume of Progress for Children reports on the world's performance in improving nutrition in young children, a crucial step towards meeting the Millennium Development Goals.
