Law Library of Congress : Provisions on Child Abduction in Non-Hague Countries before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Provisions on Child Abduction in Non-Hague Countries:

This report covers laws on parental child abduction and the legal aid that may be available to parents of abducted children in thirty-eight countries that have not signed the Hague Convention on the Civil Aspects of International Child Abduction. The responses are organized by region of the world: East Asia and the Pacific, Europe and Central Asia, Latin America and the Caribbean, the Middle East and North Africa, South Asia, and Sub-Saharan Africa. While in many countries no specific legislation or programs dealing with international abduction of children could be located, existing laws and general legal aid programs may be relevant.
