Penny Booth, Chris Barton, Mary Hibbs : Q A Family Law 2009 and 2010 (Blackstone's Law Questions and Answers) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Q A Family Law 2009 and 2010 (Blackstone's Law Questions and Answers):

This book explains how to successfully tackle the sort of problems and essay questions typically found in Family Law exam papers in England and Wales. No matter how good your research and study skills, the ultimate test for the law student is the exam. The authors clearly guide students through the process of planning and structuring answers, providing advice on what to include, and on what to leave out. The book contains 50 questions and model answers divided into chapters covering all major topics of Family Law in England and Wales. Each chapter begins with an introduction focusing on important points and ends with suggestions for further reading. Each question is supported by clear commentary indicating exactly what examiners are looking for, followed by an answer plan listing the key points to cover. Online Resource Centre An Online Resource Centre accompanies the book, providing revision and exam advice, links to useful websites, and a glossary to develop students' understanding of subject-specific terms.

"What a brilliant revision aid! With summaries, tips, and easy-to-understand sample answers, QAs really help with exam technique and how to structure answers. " --Katie Singleton, Law student, University of the West of England
