Recent Developments in Food and Drug Law provides an authoritative, insider's perspective on key strategies for analyzing new rules and regulations in food and drug law. Featuring partners from some of the nation's leading law firms, these experts guide the reader through notable cases, statutory provisions, and enforcement policies that attorneys and their clients should be aware of. These top lawyers discuss the impact of the health care reform legislation on food and drug law and offer tips on how best to help clients comply with new regulations. From inspections and the issuance of warning letters to enforcement actions, these leaders reveal their advice on preparing clients for a significant increase in FDA policing activities. These authors explain how communicating with the FDA, educating clients, and conducting internal audits aid in securing the best results for clients. Additionally, this book predicts the continuation of congressional interest and legislative activity in the food and drug arena. The different niches represented and the breadth of perspectives presented enable readers to get inside some of the great legal minds of today, as these experienced lawyers offer up their thoughts around the keys to navigating this increasingly-enforced area of law. Inside the Minds provides readers with proven business intelligence from C-Level executives and lawyers (Chairman, CEO, CFO, CMO, Partner) from the world's most respected companies and firms nationwide. Each chapter is comparable to an essay/thought leadership piece and is a future-oriented look at where an industry, profession, or topic is heading and the most important issues for the future. Each author has been selected based upon their experience and C-level standing within the professional community. Chapters Include: 1.
